

Raises All Along The Line

Are Suggested by Former President Herbert Hoover, For Government

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today the pay of government administrators ought to be increased "all along the line."

The salary raises must be given, he said, if the government hopes to keep skilled administrators in office and attract young men and women to government service.

One result of the present salary setup, Hoover said, "is to leave us with a mass of dead wood. I don't know how many of them there are, but there are a great many."

However, the committee was told that Hoover's group is considering a proposal for boosting the pay of the president and vice-president as well as other top government officials.

John Stevenson, president of the Pennsylvania Mutual Life Insurance Co. and head of the Hoover commission's "task force" on personnel, said his group has "almost adopted" the salary scale suggested yesterday by Budget Director Webb.

Tentative Suggestions

Tentative recommendations of his group, Stevenson said, call for: A $150,000-a-year salary for the president, $50,000 for the vice-president, $35,000 for the chief justice of the United States, $20,000 for members of Congress, $25,000 for cabinet officers and the speaker of the House, $20,000 for under secretaries and $17,500 for assistant secretaries and heads of boards and commissions.

He said it would be "completely justifiable" to boost the president's expense account to $50,000 a year or more.

In urging higher pay for administrators, Hoover said the real problem is to make government service attractive enough to create a corps of experts who will make it their life work.

Must Be Security

"There must be assurance of security and a little glory that compensates otherwise," he said. "We are anxious to build up a permanent corps of administrators. We can only do that by attracting good administrators and holding them in the government."

The cost of raising salaries, he argued, would actually be an economy. It has been estimated the rise in salaries for top flight government officials would total about $1,500,000.

"As a matter of fact," Hoover said, "there is no measure of greater economy than attracting skill and permanence."

He pointed to a huge turnover in government jobs and estimated the cost of training new employees is costing the government "tens of billions of dollars."

"No private business could exist with such a turnover," he said.

Should Run White House

Speaking from experience, the ex-president also proposed that the government take over the full cost of running the White House, thus easing the burden on the president.

"I believe the people should at least give the president his board and room," he told a Senate Civil Service committee.

Hoover said relieving the president of the cost of operating the executive mansion would be more helpful than a salary increase.

Hoover spoke as head of a bipartisan commission which is studying reorganization of the executive branch of government. The group's recommendations are due to go to Congress next month.

Budget Director James E. Webb told the committee yesterday that President Truman favors raising the salaries of top-level government officials, with cabinet rank pay going up from $15,000 to $25,000.

Referring to administrative posts in government, Hoover said: "We believe there should be an increase in salaries all along the line."

"Dear Mrs. Pabet:

"I am desirous by the Princess Elizabeth to express to you Her Royal Highness' sincere thanks for your congratulations and kind message of good wishes. The princess was most interested to hear that your baby was born on the same day and sends her best wishes to you and your little son.

Nicaraguan Government Makes Denial

That Its Forces Have Entered Costa Rica

By the Associated Press

The Costa Rican government, charging the nation is invaded by land, sea and air forces from neighboring Nicaragua, looked to a special meeting of the organization of American states in Washington today to settle the Central American dispute.

Diplomatic authorities in Washington said a fact-finding commission may be sent by plane to report on the claimed invasion.

The Costa Rican government charges the invasion force is made up of Communists, Nicaraguan guardsmen disguised in "flashy blue uniforms" and Costa Rican political exiles.

The Nicaraguan government has formally denied any forces have entered Costa Rica from Nicaraguan soil. The Nicaraguan foreign minister said his government had closed the southern border to prevent the crossing "by the inhabitants of any nationality."

Four Rebels Killed

The military command in San Jose, Costa Rica's capital, under Col. Jose Figueres, reported four rebels were killed and an undetermined number captured in border skirmishes yesterday.

The San Jose regime has charged the rebels are led by Rafael Calderon Guardia, a former Costa Rican president who was routed by the current military junta last May. Calderon Guardia was ousted by the military junta in a revolt which followed a disputed election in February.

Seized La Cruz

A government announcement said the rebels quickly seized the town of La Cruz, 30 miles from the border, and still hold it.

A government announcement also said three enemy planes appeared over Costa Rican territory yesterday. Two, spotted west of San Jose, were identified as B-17's. The third, unidentified as to type, was sighted over Liberia about four miles from the border.

Nicaraguan Foreign Minister Luis Manuel Debayle, in Paris as a United Nations delegate said Costa Rica's complaint to the Security Council was "unjust and absurd."

Debayle said that "if an inquiring commission is named it will be proved that the Nicaraguan government is clean of any charge."

The Little Pig Made A Hog of Himself

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Farmer Peter Smud is $65 poorer today because one of his pigs made a hog of itself.

Smud dropped his billfold in the pignet. The pig chewed it before he could retrieve it. When he took the tattered money to the bank he was told it was of no value because the pig had eaten too much.

He sold the hog to help offset the loss.

It Was Darkest Just Before the Dawn For Anthony Navarino

PATERSON, N. J., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Anthony Navarino, who wanted to sell one of his eyes to give his five kids a good Christmas, is 30 years old, but he believes in Santa Claus.

Until yesterday, Navarino was desperate. Bills were piling up. The electricity and gas had been turned off. He had no job. And worst of all, his brood faced a miserable Christmas.

That did it, he decided. The only way he could think of to get money was to offer one of his eyes for sale for $10,000 to be surgically transplanted.

Today, though, that's all just a bad memory.

After reading of his plight, more than 50 persons and business firms contributed to the flood of gifts that poured into his drab, four-room flat.

Agriculture Has Performed A Real Service

Truman Declares It is Nation's Source of Strength

By Ovid Martin

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 14.—(AP)—President Truman declared today agriculture's ability to produce abundantly is one of the nation's greatest sources of strength.

In a message to the American Farm Bureau Federation convention, the president praised farmers for producing a record crop volume this year.

The message, read to the convention by President Allan B. Kline, was addressed to "Fellow Members of the Farm Bureau." He said:

"A thoughtful glance at the year now ending gives ample evidence that farmers and their families again made history in 1948 when they completed successfully the harvest of the greatest farm crops our country ever produced.

"Only when farmers have confidence in their markets and their farm programs can the nation expect continuation of such great abundance."

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Wilfred Shaw of Chicago, secretary-treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation reported today the organization's membership hit an all-time high of 1,325,825 families this year.

In a report to the federation's 30th annual convention, Shaw said membership increased by 50,646 families in 45 states and Puerto Rico.

American farm abundance, he added, has performed a great service in the cause of humanity during the war and the post war years.

"It has brought new hope and strength for individuals and for government in many lands. Our ability to produce abundance can be a source of great and growing strength in the United States if we do our best in making it serve the needs of the people."

President Kline declared today a new depression can not be prevented by resorting to price controls and rationing.

In a keynote speech prepared for his organization's 30th annual convention, Kline said the biggest problem facing the nation is the possibility of another "boom and bust" cycle.

He said the country is in the midst of a "great inflation."

"Historically, without exception, such inflations have been followed by deflations," he said.

Should Avoid Deflation

"It is absolutely essential," he added, "that such a deflation be avoided this time. It would not only ruin agriculture, but would have repercussions for everyone in this country and everyone everywhere."

Kline said proposals are being made that the government re-establish price controls, allocation of scarce materials and rationing, as measures for stabilizing the economy.

"Let us be a little cautious," he urged, "about substituting clumsy techniques of government controls for the glorious future of a free enterprise system in this country."

The farm leader said the present inflation is "monetary" in nature. He said it reflects the fact that currency in circulation and deposits in banks has gone up from $36,200,000,000 in 1939 to $109,600,000,000 last September.

A job (the president of a glass company paid him a personal call to offer him work. Four other firms also offered him jobs.)

A complete layette for his 3-month-old daughter, Anna (from a woman who lost her child at birth.)

Two tons of coal for the winter (from a coal company.)

A station wagon load of preserved foods and staples (from the Volunteers of America.)

Two chickens and 15 quarts of milk for the children (from respectively, a grocer and a milk company.)

Besides that, an anonymous donor offered to pay all back bills, plus the rent through March "to carry him over the winter."

Pshaw.

They are both back home after a trip to Bothwell hospital for x-rays and then to Mercy hospital in Kansas City where the mill and the nickel were both removed.

Bullet Ends Life of Pretty Film Actress

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Bullets ended the life and unhappy romance of Patricia Styles, 25, beautiful blonde radio and film actress and daughter of Radio Eminent Hal Styles, and left her estranged suitor seriously wounded.

Nathan N. Sugarman, 43, head of an auctioneering and business liquidating concern, suffered wounds in his leg and head.

Detective Lt. E. W. Smith said Miss Styles did the shooting, which started as the couple sat talking in an automobile and ended when she collapsed beside the car, still firing at the fleeing Sugarman. She was dead when police arrived. Hospital attendants said Sugarman's condition was good.

Lt. Smith pieced together this story: Miss Styles and Sugarman had been in love for some time, but quarreled and broke up several months ago. Recently he announced his engagement to another woman.

TOPEKA, Kas., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Advocates of legal liquor for Kansas, triumphant in one big battle, are rallying forces for another which promises many a lively skirmish.

The state's 68-year-old constitutional ban against manufacture and sale of intoxicants was repealed 422,294 to 358,310 at the November general election.

But almost as sharp a division of forces is now taking place over the way liquor should be made available as marked the long, bitter struggle for repeal.

Plunged to Death

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Dec. 14.—(AP)—An elderly Springfield man plunged 35 feet to his death from a downtown hotel room here yesterday, landing only a few feet from police headquarters.

Police said the man, Byron Hunt, 64, was almost blind and had been ill for several years. It was not determined whether he fell or jumped from the window. He died in a hospital an hour after he was found.

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The Socialist newspaper Telegram said today the "People's Police" in eastern Germany are being resumed secretly by Russia in the style of the "Black Reichswehr" after World War I.

The British licensed paper, which continually attacks Soviet policies, claimed the real strength of the force was hidden by distributing its men in factories in groups of five to 50.

WISBADEN, Germany, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The number of C-54 Skymasters flying the airlift to Berlin will be increased to 225 by the end of this month, U. S. air force headquarters announced today. At present 206 C-54s are assigned to the airlift.

To Visit Army Posts Abroad

LONDON, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Kenneth Royall, United States secretary of the army, left by air for Frankfurt, Germany, today on an inspection tour which will take him to nearly every American army post in Europe.

White House Secretary Charles G. Ross today declined to comment on whether President Truman thinks plans for his inauguration are too elaborate.

Ross was asked about a story in the Washington Post quoting Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan as saying the inaugural ceremonies planned will be "ten times as large as President Truman wants them to be."

Vaughan is Mr. Truman's military aide.

Asked whether he knew anything about the Vaughan remarks, Ross replied: "I do not."

Then he was asked whether Mr. Truman thinks the ceremonies being planned are too elaborate. Ross said he had no comment on that.

Vaughan's office said he would not be available until the afternoon. A secretary said she did not know where the general could be reached.

Start Canvass Election Vote In Missouri

Tabulating Will Probably Continue Through Wednesday

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The official canvass of Missouri's general election vote started today in Secretary of State Edgar C. Nelson's office.

Paul Markway, chief clerk, estimated the tabulating would not be finished before tomorrow at the earliest.

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—Un- like the supreme court, the real estate lobby does not believe in noting the election returns. Working diligently and secretly the real estate boys have now recruited an army of 3,300 amateur lobbyists to bombard Washington with a last-ditch stand against public housing and rent control.

This new lobbying force has been handpicked on the basis of personal friendship with influential congressmen. They are scattered throughout the grass roots so as to make the movement appear spontaneous, and their names are carefully guarded until housing D-day before congress.

Meanwhile, Cal Snyder, chief lobbyist for the National Association of Real Estate Boards, is boasting that the lobby will defeat President Truman's housing program again — by at least 30 votes in the house.

The coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats boasts Snyder will still be able to block public housing and rent control in the new congress. While he may not want it published, Snyder spoke off the record before the secretaries council of the National Association of Real Estate Boards recently.

"Remember," he jubilated, "that Roosevelt had a Democratic congress in 1938, and he asked a million dollars for public housing. Roosevelt was a pretty smooth operator, but he didn't get the money for housing. There was a Democratic congress again in '40 and they didn't get it. In '42 and 44 they didn't get it, either."

"Now is not the time to compromise," Snyder sounded the new battle cry. "Now is the time to get in there and punch. Now is the time, if you'll pardon the expression, to adopt the tactics of Harry Truman in the election. Get in there and fight."

Unregistered Lobbyists

Snyder is counting upon the army of 3,300 newly recruited, home town lobbyists to turn the tide. They will not register as lobbyists but operate as congressmen's constituents.

In most cases, congressmen will not realize they are dealing with lobbyists controlled from Washington. They will be close personal friends of the congressmen, picked because they can influence votes.

To finance this operation, the National Association of Real Estate Boards is asking $5 a head from its members. This should swell the total lobbying kitty to more than $200,000. In most cases, however, the lobbyist constituent will pay his own way to Washington.

Lobby Rollcall

This grass-roots army doesn't mean that the real estate lobby is doing away with its "command squad" already operating on capitol hill. These professionals represent every phase of home building, and in order that new congressmen may know who they are, here is a list of the key real estate lobbyists:

Doug Whitlock — Chunky, genial, glad hander for the building products institute, which supplies materials for building homes.

Frank Cortwright — Suave, dignified executive vice president for the National Association of Home Builders, which builds the homes.

Herb Nelson — Shrewd executive vice president for the National Association of Real Estate Boards, which sells the homes. His chief working lobbyist is Cal Snyder, who spins yarns and manipulates votes with the best of them. Another teammate is slender, young Albert Payne, who does most of the paper and leg work.

Morton Bodfish — Astute kingfish of them all. He represents the U.S. Savings and Loan league, which finances the homes.

John Owen — Wealthy, elderly president of the National Apartment Owners Association, which sident Truman once branded as the worst lobby in Washington and who are girded for last ditch action when congress convenes January 3.

Shoe on Other Foot

When a newsman mistakenly reported that White House press secretary Charlie Ross tried to sell his Washington home before the election, Ross raised the White House roof. He grumbled to the president and beamed at staff meetings for three days.

Finally, at the 9 a. m. meeting of the White House staff, the president's military aide, convivial Gen. Harry Vaughan, blurted:

"Mr. President, I can't help making the observation that during these past months when myself, Admiral Leahy, General Graham and some of the rest of us have taken knocks like that, our press secretary was mildly offended and large amused. But as soon as he gets a mild scratch on the shins, he yells like a stuck pig."

"China too long has been the Far East instead of the Near West," Mrs. Ruth Quinlan Sun, of Parkville, wife of Norman Sun, professor of Economics at Park college said in her address on "China Today," Monday afternoon before Sorosis.

Mrs. Sun said that for a number of years she had been interested in China and had been especially so since she had married a Chinese.

One half of the earth's surface and one half the population is the continent of Asia and one fifth of the world's population is in China, the speaker said. We cannot afford to ignore that part of the world any longer. Exports and imports are particularly great around the Kansas City area, of which Sedalia is a part, with China.

China has the oldest recorded history of any nation. It looks like a great mulberry leaf with its three large rivers forming the veins. In the fertile valleys between the waterways was one of the greatest civilizations ever known and of the 16 ancient civilizations only China still survives.

Some of the greatest men of all time were in China. Lao-Tse whose teachings were the Golden Rule of Confucius, the great philosopher, who founded Confucianism, which was not a religion but was philosophy of life, Mrs. Sun said.

The speaker gave a brief history of China, telling of its civilization and culture within its own country and then of the coming of the British who fought a short war with China and won forcing China to pay indemnity. Russia, Portugal, France, Germany and other expanding powers saw what Britain had done under threat of war causing China to sign unequal treaties, and came also.

China, the speaker said, feared and hated foreign countries but they saw the higher type of civilization, admired the western business, techniques, living and politics and wanted to learn. Then came revolutions.

China has never been industrIALIZED and 85 per cent of the Chinese are farmers with the wealthy landlords owning a greater part of the land. It is a near feudal system, the speaker said.

A great influence was felt by the Chinese through Dr. Sun, who was, by profession, a physician. Dr. Sun spent a number of years in the United States and other countries and when he returned to his own country he saw vast needs. He gave up medicine to help his country and following the revolution turned the country over to the man who had won it and went into seclusion. In 1920 Dr. Sun emerged from his seclusion and became the head of the party led new by Chiang Kai-Shek. Dr. Sun became head of China. His policy, the speaker said, was to give the people of China a socialism something like the democracy in western Europe. He wanted the people's rights, he wanted them to have a livelihood, he wanted to educate them, then he wanted a democracy with a constitution. From 1920 to 1925 he worked to put the program on but died suddenly in 1925. He had a great vision if he had been spared to carry it through.

The government then fell upon Chiang, who had been working under Dr. Sun. They had much in common and had married sisters, daughters of Charlie Soong. This marriage gave Chiang political and financial advantages.

The Communists, were in China as well as all other countries. China needed funds and in order to get them Chiang had to promise to expel the Communists from the government which he did. This, the speaker said, she did not believe Dr. Sun would have done, but Chiang was not a leader in government, he was a military leader.

When Dr. Sun had appealed to the west for funds he was refused but Russia, seeing a chance to win friends and influence people, went to his aid. Both money and capable men were sent to help.

The Communists went into northwestern China and established headquarters. In 1934 Chiang began a program of reform to raise the party morale. He saw that war with Japan was coming and managed to band both the Nationalists and Communists together to fight against Japan. But after the war the bitterness again arose. The Communists seeing that Chiang had not carried out their promises to the people but just kept promising began to take the land from the landowners and make it into small farms for the peasant farmers. They started an educational system and set up local governments with one third of the offices by Communists, one third by the peasant farmers and one third by other political parties. The Chinese feel they can't be any worse off and so they follow the Communists.

Ninety per cent, Mrs. Sun said, of the population, however, are neither Nationalists or Communists.

The United States she said has sent some aid to China but the government has been so corrupt that they are slow to send more.

China, Mrs. Sun said, offers much in her resources and could be built into a great country but of all her contributions to the world her greatest has been in human beings, of which there are 460 million.

Mrs. Sun was introduced by Mrs. William Seelen, Current Topics chairman.

The next meeting will be on January 3 at which time Dr. Jennie Fleming of Columbia, former missionary to India, will be the speaker. A luncheon in her honor will precede the meeting.

Mrs. H. E. Lindstrom, president, presided over the meeting.

Circle number one of the Sedalia Garden Club met at the home of Miss Lelia Shortridge, 904 South Grand avenue, Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. M. Nicholas, Mrs. W. W. Blain and Mrs. W. O. Harris assisting hostesses.

The home was effectively decorated carrying out the Christmas idea and exhibits for the day being Christmas arrangements added to decorations already in the home.

There was an exchange of Christmas gifts after which a Christmas program was presented.

Mrs. J. E. Golladay brought an appropriate Christmas message and Mrs. Irwin Raut gave a Christmas prayer.

Mrs. E. F. Yancey was in charge of a musical program. Mrs. C. C. DeLozier gave two piano selections, "Jesu Bambino" by Piertrouyon and "Sleigh Bell Times" by Dorothy Balk. Mrs. Robert Seelen, accompanied by Mrs. DeLozier sang "In the Bleak Midwinter" by Rosetti and "Mary's Little Son" by Zemaest after which the entire group sang Christmas carols.

Mrs. John Bohon, program chairman, then presented Miss Nina Harris, who gave a most interesting talk on "Christmas Traditions."

Mrs. John Bohon, program chairman, presented Miss Nina Harris, who gave a talk on the subject of "Christmas Legends." She began by saying "Is there a man with soul so dead, who unto himself hath said, 'There is no Santa Claus.'"

As early as 2000 years before Christ, Yuletide celebrations were held by the ancient Aryans who were sun worshippers. These primitive people were full of superstitions, myths and legends, and from them we find many of the Yuletide customs handed down to the present day.

Miss Harris told of the early Saxon, Swedish and Norwegian customs of those early days. Old Icelanders' literature abound in traditions from which come the feasting of the mistletoe at the Yuletide that mythology of Greece and Rome presents many of these ideas. The speaker said the brave old days, if possibly crude and unrefined, were at least distinguished by a beauty of genuine hospitality. It was a very merry season and those early people feasted, drank and danced in honor of the return of the joyous season.

Later messengers went through the countries proclaiming the tidings of a new religion and of the birth of a son who brought of light and new life to the people of the whole world. Many of the old customs were retained and gave to those festivals a finer character and significance as Christmas, meaning "The Mass of Christ," established the Nativity of Jesus.

The holly, laurels, green trees and evergreens were used by the Druids of old and now serve as our decorations for our wonderful Christmas celebrations proclaiming the divinity of the Christ Child and the fatherhood of God.

The legend of "Old St. Nick," the Harz Mountain Imp, was entertainingly told by Miss Harris, as at this time the custom of lights, flowers, green trees, bright baubles and feasting came into being and these things become a part of our modern customs also.

Miss Harris closed her address with the thought of the charm of our Christmas with the reunion of families, exchange of gifts as young and old gather around the festive board and celebrate the Christmas.

The home of Mrs. G. W. Chambers was the scene at a Christmas party for members of the Stephens College Alumni club, Saturday afternoon, December 11. Mrs. L. Carter was assisting hostess.

The home was decorated with Christmas decorations. Small lighted candles and Santa Claus driving his eight reindeer decorated the mantle. The dining table was a large white colonial bowl bearing a miniature figure of the Madonna which was surrounded by spruce, holly and white flowers. At the card tables where the guests were seated at the 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon, the

It Looks Like a Merry Noel in Paris

From the looks of things, Paris is getting ready for a very merry Christmas. And Santa Claus — Pere Noel to the Parisians — arrives in typical French style. The old gentleman floats to earth in a balloon, right. (Photos by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Rene Henry.)

Christmas colors prevailed. Cor-sages of Christmas holly tied with silver ribbon were found at each plate.

The business meeting was pre-sided over by the president, Mrs. George Rotzong. Mrs. Sid Condict read a memorial in honor of the late Mrs. Olive Penquite who was a member of the Sedalia College Club at the time of her death.

The members of the club were happy to have with them as guest, Mrs. Floyd Swanstone, 411 East Fifth street, a graduate of Stephens College in the year of 1948.

After the business meeting, Miss Challis Johnson had charge of the program using as her subject, "Christmas in Other Lands." Miss Johnson presented several of her seventh grade pupils from Horace Mann school. Those taking part were: Donna Richardson, Carolyn Heck, Joyce Burke, Gene Vaughn, Richard Smith, Gene Watts and Marvin Bohon.

A special part of the program was at the conclusion when gifts were exchanged among members of the club.

The annual Christmas party of Osage Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Frank S. Leach, 522 West Seventh street.

Spruce sprays with large red satin bows and pine cones were used on the front door and about the home. A large lighted tree stood in the corner of the living room and on the mantel was a lighted shrine on either side of which was a figure of a madonna, one lighted by a candle. Throughout the home were arrangements of spruce, pine cones and red candles.

The party was especially honoring the new regent, Mrs. A. L. Walter and in the receiving line with Mrs. Walter were Mrs. J. E. Mitchell, retiring regent; Miss Nina Harris, corresponding secretary of the state officers club of which Mrs. Leach is president; out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. P. Wright, Mrs. T. L. Nolin and Mrs. Leach's sister, Miss Rebekah Shaeffer, all of Columbia, and members of the D. A. R. In the receiving line also were Mrs. Leach and her assisting hostesses: Mrs. C. F. Scotten, Mrs. W. E. Scotten, Mrs. George E. Dugan, Mrs. Roy I. Copen, Mrs. J. C. Saunders, Mrs. E. W. Kettleson, Mrs. Ruth Riley, Mrs. Harold Conway, Mrs. Edgar Dilthy, Mrs. W. P. Tucker and Mrs. L. P. Howard. All were in formal attire.

The meeting was opened with a short talk by Mrs. Walter the new regent, after which Miss Nina Harris, program chairman, turned the program over to the hostess.

The pledge of allegiance to the flag and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner was followed by a prayer by Mrs. A. F. Scott. Mrs. E. F. Yancey was in charge of the music. Mrs. C. C. DeLozier at the piano played Jesu Bambino by Pietro A. Yon and Sleigh Bell Time by Dorothy Jayno Balk. Mrs. Robert Seelen sang "In the Bleak Mid-winter" by Rosetti and "Mary's Little Son" by Zemaest.

Mrs. Yancey then led the singing of Christmas carols with Mrs. DeLozier at the piano.

Mrs. Everett White gave a musical story, "The Legend of the Christ Child," adapted by the German and written by Elizabeth Harrison with musical arrangement by Frances Arnold. Mrs. DeLozier played the accompaniment.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses after which all went into the dining room where on the table was the Nativity scene, the figures of which have been gathered from all over the world. As the guests looked at the Nativity scene Miss Lillian Fox at the piano played "Silent Night."

Programs for the day were of red and blue suede tied with gold cord and on the front of each was a Christmas picture.

Mrs. Leonard McClure was in charge of the gaily wrapped gifts that were placed around the tree by members to be taken to the Melita Day Nursery for Christmas.

The Christmas vacation at Stephens College, Columbia, will start on December 16 and classes will resume on January 5. A series of formal holiday balls will precede the vacation period, as well as numerous informal residence hall and club parties. The formal Christmas dinner on Tuesday night, December 14, will be followed by the traditional Christmas program presented by the student concert chorus. Climaxing the holiday events will be the twenty-first annual Christmas vesper service on the eve of departure, followed by caroling

XL
HOURS of searing, lonely pain had gone by. Tortured hours. She was somewhere in the house but she was not beside him. Then the door opened and he knew she was looking at him.

What a long look. Would she never stop looking? What was she thinking? "You are such a long time dying." Or, "My own love, are you not any better yet?" Which was the true thought; which was the true she, and which his false dream of her?

She had entered the room. She was coming toward him. She was bending over him. He could feel the warmth of her breath.

His eyes opened and fixed on her with a strange, melting softness. Like the eyes of a wounded dog, begging its release.

She turned hers away, then irresistibly they were drawn back again. "Why are you looking at me like that, my dear? What are you trying to say?"

He motioned to her with one finger to bend closer.

She inclined her head a little the better to hear what he had to say.

He reached up falteringly and stroked the fringe, the silken blond bangs that curved before her cool smooth forehead.

Then he struggled higher, onto an elbow, as if cast upward by the ebb tide that was leaving him behind so rapidly.

"I love you, Bonny," he whispered fiercely. "No other one, no other love. From first to last, from start to finish. And beyond. Beyond, Bonny, do you hear me? Beyond. It will not end. I will, but it will not."

Her face came nearer still, slowly, uncertainly; like that of one dipping toward a new experience, feeling her way. Something had happened to it, was happening ward the door. She opened it, then stopped there to look back at him. Then went out.

He heard her going down the stairs. And though he heard her stop, as though impulse had flagged; and then go on again, as she fanned it back to life once more.

She was gone about 10 minutes in all. Ten minutes of hell, while flames licked at him all over.

Then presently the door opened and she had returned. She was carrying it in her hand. She came to him and set it down upon the stand, a little to the side of him, beyond easy reach.

"Don't—Not yet—" she said in a stifled voice, when he tried to reach for it. "Let it wait a while. A little later will do."

SHE lit the lamp, and then went over by the fireplace to fling the match away. Then she remained there by it, looking down into it.

Suddenly a bright light flared, like a hot, flickering, yellow star. He looked over and she was standing sideways to the fireplace, holding a burning brand outthrust toward it in her hand.

"What are you doing, Bonny?" he whispered feebly.

She did not turn her head, as it were of no consequence to her whether or not he was watching. "Burning a paper."

"What paper?"

Her voice had no tone. "A policy of insurance—upon your life—payable for $20,000."

"It was not worth the trouble. It lacked force, I told you that."

It was in force again just now. He pledged his ring and made up the payments.

Suddenly he saw that she had dropped it. She covered her face with the flats of her hands.

He sighed, but without much emotion. "Poor Bonny. Did you want the money that badly? I would have—"

He lay there for a moment or two after that, inert.

"I'd better drink this now," he said softly, at last.

He strained until his arm could reach the glass. He clasped it, took it up.

Seems Wife 'Gone All-American'

WICHITA, Kas., Dec. 14.—(P)—In a signed article in the Wichita Eagle, Ralph W. Reid, 36, Australian sports writer from Brisbane, reported Monday.

"My wife has apparently gone all American on me. On Sunday, she presented me with an American daughter, and became half American herself."

The daughter, Christine Ann, was born at 9:30 a. m. Wichita Time, Sunday, Reid said. And Mrs. Reid, he added, received trans-fusions of American blood in connection with the birth.

"They're both just fine," he said this afternoon.

The Reids accompanied their 7-year-old son, John, to Wichita last September to enroll him at the Institute of Logopedics, a non-profit school for speech training. John has been speechless since a brain illness four years ago.

At the institute, Dr. Martin F. Palmer, director, this afternoon said John is "making satisfactory progress."

Two other children accompanied the Reids to Wichita, in the trip by rail, water and plane from Brisbane, where Reid worked for The Telegraph. They are Margo, who will be 9 next month, and Robert, 5.

Reid is employed by the Eagle as a special writer during their stay.

Their new daughter, Reid said, was named for "a very fine Wichita." Mrs. Christine Ann Tischhauser. It was she who threw open her own home to them last Oct. 1, when they arrived and found locating their own home a problem.

Coconuts are imported to this country in two forms: whole and shredded. Both are processed in the United States.

'O. K.' Is Given Recordings

Musicians Union Welfare Fund Gets Sanction

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(P)—The government Monday night gave Jas. C. Petrillo a legal okay on his musician's union welfare fund, opening the way for immediate resumption of record making by AFL musicians.

Attorney General Tom C. Clark, and Labor Department Solicitor William S. Tyson said the welfare arrangement between the recording companies and the AFL Federation of Musicians is legal. Both sides had agreed on the section of Samuel R. Rosenbaum, director of the Philadelphia Orchestra Association, as the sole trustee of the $2,000,000 a year welfare fund.

The fund would be financed from a royalty of one cent to two and one half cents on each record, depending on the sales cost. The money is to be spent on free concerts to be staged by unemployed musicians, who would be paid for their services.

Tyson and Clark agreed that Rosenbaum would not be strictly a representative of the employees, and therefore the trusteeship, and the welfare plan itself, does not violate the Taft-Hartley act.

To Record New Numbers
The end of the union ban on recording will signal the first recording of new numbers since Jan. 1 by instrumentalists who are members of the AFL-American Federation of Musicians, headed by Petrillo. Some new numbers have been recorded overseas during the ban, and some in this country with vocal accompaniment, but none by top American bands and instrumentalists.

Petrillo has protested vigorously in the past that the making and playing of records deprived union musicians of "live" employment.

Even as the lawyers were huddling in Washington, phonograph record companies alerted artists to stand by for a formal end of the recording ban tomorrow. Recording is to be resumed under a five-year contract between the union and the industry.

However, some record company officials discounted the likelihood of any large scale rush of new recordings. They pointed out that most companies still have some unreleased tunes and renditions accumulated last year prior to the ban.

But industry circles were hopeful that a new supply of tunes and renditions might pep up the record market which has been lagging probably 35 per cent under last year.

Program for Stokley Club

The Indians—Juan Vandever and Sterling Clark—live near China Springs, five miles north of here. They were taken immediately to Santa Fe for sentencing in district court.

Searching For Killers of Girl in Guam

Found Alive

Ruth Farnsworth, 27, above, Navy civilian employee who was raped and beaten Saturday night by an unknown assailant and left in heavy brush near the jade shop where she worked on Guam, died Monday. (NEA Telephoto)

Pair of Paratroop Boots Found Near Where She Was Left

GUAM, Dec. 14.—(P)—Attractive Ruth Farnsworth died today of shock and a beating administered by a sex maniac.

Search for the killer—or killers—who kidnapped and raped the 27-year-old San Francisco woman intensified with discovery of a pair of paratroop boots in the jungle near the spot where she was left to die.

Naval officials said the boots were possible blood stains, and the name of the owner.

The boots and other evidence are being sent to the FBI in Washington for study, the navy said.

A missing sandal, which authorities hoped would help track down the killer, was found near the scene. The strap had been torn off when it was ripped from Miss Farnsworth's foot. Her other sandal earlier had been found near an Oriental curio shop where she worked nights.

Several Questioned

Several men were questioned by investigators, but no one was held. Rewards for information leading to identification of the girl's attackers were offered by the government and the proprietor of the shop.

Miss Farnsworth was kidnapped from the shop Saturday night. She was found unconscious yesterday in a jungle thicket 200 yards away. Her clothing was torn and disheveled. She died early this morning.

The shop and the spot where she was found showed Miss Farnsworth put up a desperate struggle.

Killed by Sex Fiends

Investigators under the direction of Lt. Commander James P. Hackett, navy assistant police chief, said they were convinced she was kidnapped and killed by a band of sex fiends. All commanders on Guam were directed to check their men for possible scratches or cuts. Indications were Miss Farnsworth put up such a fierce struggle that her attackers probably did not escape unscathed.

Miss Farnsworth was a former WAC, working on Guam as a navy civilian service employee. She took a night job in the curio shop to augment her income.

She was engaged to Marine Sgt. Sterling McGinnis, also stationed on Guam, and had planned to return home in February to be married.

King George VI Is 53 Today

LONDON, Dec. 14.—(P)—King George VI observed his 53rd birthday today, cheered by news that his dangerous leg condition is improving.

But despite the reassuring medical bulletin the Royal family plans no formal celebration. The king's birthday, always a quiet family affair, will be more than habitually subdued this year.

The queen will dine with her husband at his bedside. Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret and Prince Philip will see him as long as is deemed advisable. His mother, Queen Mary, is expected to drop in from nearby Marlborough House. A few others may call.

Little note will be taken of the day publicly. Flags will be flown here and there over the country. That is about all. The nation and the empire reserves its big display for the "official" birthday celebration in June.

Bossy Now Has The New Look

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(P)—Bossy, queen of the dairy industry, is finding life more plushy. At the opening of the Illinois Dairy Products Association it was disclosed that the dairy cow is coming in for such extravaganzas as haircuts and radiant heat.

A live cow will be on the stage at the convention headquarters in a Loop hotel today and will get the New Look at the hands of coiffeurs wielding a newly introduced bovine electric shaver. Dairy men said the haircut makes bossy feel more comfortable.

H. K. Lange of Minneapolis told the dairymen how heat pipes are being laid under barn floors to keep bossy's mattress dry and guard her from sudden chills.

Large Crowd At Carnival

A large crowd attended the Mark Twain school carnival, which was held Friday night at the school.

The evening started with a supper in the lunch room with serving continuing throughout the evening.

The main event was the coronation of the king and queen, with Barbara Rissler as queen and Jeff Berry as king. Their attendants were Crosby Brown, Mary Louise Wolke, Jimmy Swafford, Sandra McLaughlin, Bill Sutton, Mary Huggins, Bobby Schrader, Susan Schien, Tony Burton, Myrna Miller, Larry Lueck, Diane Sklar, Bill Heiss and Mary Alice McLaughlin.

Following the coronation a program was presented with James Dittmer singing "Sylvia" and White Christmas with Dorothy Ann Reed as the accompanist. Ten numbers were presented by the Harper's School of Dancing; a piano solo, "Clair de lune," by Dorothy Reed, and a group of numbers by a Barber Shop quartet composed of Bob Austin, Z. Lyle Brown, Dick Snow and Neal Powers.

Other attractions of the evening were boxing, wrestling, crazy house, fish pond and a number of other events.

City Wins in Appeal Case

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 14.—(P)—The city of Maryville has a right to tell liquor retailers they can't sell their alcoholic merchandise after 10 o'clock at night.

Missouri's supreme court decided late yesterday that the city's ordinance banning sale of liquor between 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. is not in conflict with state liquor control laws.

State laws provide that liquor may not be sold between 1:30 and 6 a. m.

The high court said: "The fact that an ordinance enlarges upon the provisions of a statute by requiring more than the statute requires creates no conflict unless the statute limits the requirement for all cases to its own prescriptions."

The case started when John R. Wood, a retailer, was haled into police court for selling liquor after the 10 p. m. closing established by ordinance. The police judge dismissed the city's complaint, but the city won on its appeal to the Nodaway county circuit court.

The supreme court came into the picture when Wood appealed.

New Member M. U. Faculty

COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 14.—(P)—Dr. John G. Heilhardt, noted poet and authority on Indian affairs, has been appointed lecturer in English at the University of Missouri for next semester.

Dr. Elmer Ellis, dean of the College of Arts and Science, said today Dr. Heilhardt will conduct two courses, one in poetry writing and the other entitled "Epic America." The latter will be based largely upon Heilhardt's epic poem, "A Cycle of the West." This deals with the westward march of the white man from 1882 to 1890.

Dr. Heilhardt received a Doctor of Literature degree from the University of Nebraska in 1917 and was named Professor of Poetry there in 1923. He was appointed poet laureate of Nebraska by the state legislature in 1921. From 1926 to 1938 he was literary editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

From 1941 to 1944 Dr. Heilhardt was director of the division of information for the Bureau of Indian Affairs and has since served as field director for that office.

'Shot to Scare' Woman Tenant

PRINCETON, Mo., Dec. 14.—(P)—A landlord has been charged with assault with intent to kill as a result of a shooting incident yesterday. No one was injured in the affair.

Prosecuting Attorney William S. Thompson said the tenant, a young widow with seven children, told him the landlord, John Brown, 70, fired two shots "just to scare" her after asking her for the December rent.

The widow, Mrs. Mildred Johnson, 33, said she had delayed paying the $12 rent because the house needed repairs. Brown occupies two rooms on the second floor. Mrs. Johnson and her children live in three rooms on the first floor.

The prosecutor quoted Mrs. Thompson as saying Brown came into her living room and asked for the rent, then pulled out a .32 calibre pistol and fired two shots past her head when she asked about the repairs.

She paid the rent.

Two linemen, Richard Overton and Harry Campbell, working on a telephone pole nearby, said they heard the bullets whistle past them.

Proposal 'Out Of All Reason'

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.—(P)—The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company rejected today a union proposal for settlement of their prolonged contract dispute, describing it as "out of all reason."

Southwestern Division 20, Communications Workers of America (Ind.), has threatened to call a strike of 50,000 employees of the company in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas if a settlement is not reached.

A spokesman for Southwestern Bell said the union proposal called for initial wage increases of $17,000,000 annually in contrast to the company's offer of $7,500,000.

One of Famous 'Pumpkin Papers'

This document, allegedly in the handwriting of Alger Hiss, former State Department employee, was one of 12 secret U. S. papers made public by the House Un-American Activities Committee. Papers were said to have been stolen from official files by a Red spy ring 10 years ago, and were recently surrendered to the committee by Whittaker Chambers, confessed former Red spy courier, after being secreted in microfilm form in a pumpkin on his Maryland farm. ## Convict is Decapitated

ANGLETON, Tex., Dec. 14.—(P)—The decapitation last night of one of Texas' toughest prisoners today was blamed on homosexual attacks he had made on other prisoners.

This theory of the cause was advanced by the prison system's general manager, O. B. Ellis, in a telephone interview from Huntsville, prison system headquarters. He said Clarence William Redwine, the murdered man, had been accused of two homosexual attacks. "This is behind it," I believe," Ellis said.

Redwine was killed as the 200 prisoners marched out of the mess hall at Retrieve prison farm near here.

Today, Ellis reported that no progress had been made in finding the person or persons who killed the 38-year-old convict. He also said the weapon had not been found.

Ellis said the slaying apparently occurred this way, but he stressed that his reconstruction was merely an assumption:

A group of prisoners at one end of the mess hall began talking loudly to distract the attention of the two prison employees present.

Then one man slapped a hand over Redwine's mouth while another cut off his head with a small knife.

Labor Calls Conferences

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(P)—The AFL and CIO called separate strategy meetings today with two immediate goals: Repeal of the Taft-Hartley act and a bigger political role for organized labor.

The CIO's nine vice presidents were summoned into conference by President Philip Murray to press the decision of the organization's recent convention in Portland, Ore., to demand outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley law.

Three CIO leaders officially advised Secretary of Labor Tobin of that decision yesterday. They are Secretary-Treasurer James B. Carey, General Counsel Arthur Goldberg and David J. McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the CIO Steelworkers.

They planned to report to the vice presidents today on what Tobin told them. The secretary was tight-lipped to newsmen about his two-hour parley with the CIO officers. He said he was merely collecting information to help President Truman frame his "State of the Union" message to congress.

Below Zero in Northern States

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(P)—Temperatures dipped to below zero over the northern tier of Central states today while the southern half of the country had unseasonably mild weather.

The mercury dropped to 21 below at Cent Bank, Mont., and to 14 below at International Falls, Minn., as cold air spread along the entire extreme northern edge of the country.

Cloudiness prevailed over many sections, but no heavy precipitation was reported.

Considerable fog was reported in Southern Illinois, Southern Indiana and in the Tennessee Valley and near the Gulf Coast.

Cafe Report Disappointing

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.—(P)—St. Louis restaurants have shown little improvement in the past two years under the new restaurant sanitation code. A government health service survey reports lax enforcement is to blame.

The report said St. Louis eating places of all types now average 55 per cent compliance with sanitary regulations. Four years ago the average was 49 per cent.

Mayor Kaufmann said the report "is disappointing" but by no means discouraging. He said that when the ordinance was adopted, St. Louis restaurant conditions were "almost deplorable."

They All Cried
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 14.—(P)—Everybody had a good cry just after custodians at the court house finished erecting a huge Christmas tree in the lobby.

A representative of a tear gas firm, doing some checking, set off a cartridge accidentally in an office and the gas gushed out into the lobby.

There wasn't a dry eye in the crowd.

Even Shivers Now At The Mention Of Inauguration

By Arthur Edson
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—(AP)—Every time someone mentions the President's inauguration to Maj. Gen. Philip S. Fleming, he shivers. With cold, that is.

For the public works administrator takes a frigid mental glance back to one of the most talked of inaugurations of all: The one that put William Howard Taft in the White House in 1909.

Democrats Plan $100,000 Chest A Year

Victory Dinner And Celebration Held Monday

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 14—(AP)—Victorious Missouri Democrats laid plans Monday to raise a war chest of $100,000 a year to finance expanded party activities.

Here for a victory celebration and dinner Monday night, Democratic state committee members authorized their chairman John H. Hendren, to go ahead with an ambitious program between now and the 1930 election.

The backbone of it will be establishment of a state Democratic club with memberships selling at five a year. Hendren said he thought 20,000 memberships could be sold easily, giving the party a yearly fund of $100,000.

Each member would get a red, white and blue membership card with a picture of the state seal and the state capital. A quarterly magazine also may be established, Hendren said, to be sent free to each member. Magazine advertising would add to the revenue.

The object, he explained, is to keep the party alive and active between elections. None of the money would be used for primary campaigns. All would go for general party purposes.

Permanent party headquarters will be moved from their present location in a Jefferson City office building to one of the city's hotels, with a receptionist on hand all the time.

Hendren said he also hopes to get a liaison man to work full time at the job of helping county committees and Young Democrats' clubs keep active between elections.

"One of our big troubles in the campaign was money," he said. "Six weeks before the election is too short a time to finance a campaign."

Committee Treasurer Raymond A. Edlund of Kansas City reported the party now has $1,704 on hand after spending $58,425 in the campaign.

Hendren said the club idea would be the best way to build up the committee's finances because it would include many small contributors. They make better workers and do not demand so much as big contributors, he explained.

The club dues apparently would be in addition to the usual contributions expected from state employees.

Turning to the social part of their victory day celebration, state committee members and state officials were Hendren's guests at a cocktail party late this afternoon.

Monday night they had a $5-a-plate dinner honoring all-Democratic official family of Missouri. It was a sellout with 550 ticket buyers.

Retiring Gov. Phil M. Donnelly, Gov.-Elect Forrest Smith and all other retiring and newly elected state officials were on the program for short, informal speeches.

The 15 presidential electors who cast Missouri's official ballots today for President Truman were special guests.

The Doctor Says

Bronchopneumonia Is Still Dangerous Despite New Drugs

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

The smaller breathing passages leading to the lungs are called bronchi. As they pass down toward the lung tissue itself, they divide and become smaller and smaller. Germs can easily attack the lining of these tubes and cause inflammation. When the smaller bronchi become infected, the lung tissue surrounding them is also likely to be involved and in such cases bronchopneumonia is said to be present.

Almost any germ can cause bronchopneumonia. Irritating gases or other substances breathed in many also produce an inflamed condition of the bronchi and surrounding lung tissue. The dividing line between bronchitis (which is infection of the tubes) and bronchopneumonia which includes involvement of the lung tissue proper, is not sharp, and simple bronchitis can easily lead to pneumonia.

Cough Generally Present

Cough with or without the bringing up of sputum is generally present in bronchopneumonia. Some fever, but not as high as in lobar pneumonia, is the rule. Pain in the chest on the other hand, which is usually present in the early stages of lobar pneumonia, is often lacking.

Bronchopneumonia when left untreated does not end with a sudden disappearance of symp-

Yankees Set a Road Black in Pennant Race

Regard Purchase of Sanford of Browns A '$100,000 Block'

By Jack Hand
CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(P)—The New York Yankees regard purchase of Pitcher Fred Sanford from the St. Louis Browns for $100,000 and three players as a road block in the pennant paths of Cleveland, Boston and Detroit. By swinging the first major American league deal of the winter meetings last night, the Yanks have dried up one potential source of help for the pitcher-club Red Sox. They claim both Cleveland and Detroit also would have snapped up Sanford—just to stop the Yanks from adding strength.

"Now maybe they'll have to make some trades with us," a Yankee spokesman said. "Don't overlook a very important part of the announcement. The Browns say they plan no more major deals. If the others can't help themselves in St. Louis they may have to come to us. We are anxious to make more trades."

At least one potential Yankee deal, however, was stymied temporarily by the Sanford purchase. That was a Washington-New York swap by which either Pitcher Walt Masterson or Early Wynn would come to New York for cash and Pitcher Dick Starr. Starr was one of three men who went to the Browns. The others were Pitcher Red Embree, a former Cleveland Indian and Catcher Sherm Lollar, another ex-Indian farmhand. In return the Yanks get Sanford and Catcher Roy Partee who is bound for the minors.

Bearden Pitching King

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(P)—Lanky Gene Bearden of the world champion Cleveland Indians was certified today as the 1948 American league pitching king. The 28-year-old lefty posted an official earned run average of 2.43 to top the circuit and help the Tribe take team pitching honors to go with its team batting title of .282. The Indians had a club earned run average of 2.32, followed by New York with 2.75, Detroit 4.15, Boston 4.26, Philadelphia 4.42, Washington 4.66, Chicago 4.89 and St. Louis 5.01. Bearden was one of three 20 game winners, finishing second in the won-lost percentage among hurlers in 10 or more complete games. His record was 20-7 for 741 innings, appearing in 37 contests and his 20th victory in the unprecedented playoff with Boston for the league flag. His percentage was second to the top .783 booked by Boston's Jack Kramer with 18-5.

Detroit's veteran Hal Newhouse was the league's biggest winner with 21. He lost 12 for a .636 rating and ranked third on the pitching list with an E.R.A. of 3.01.

The other 20 game winner was Bearden's Cleveland teammate, Bob Lemon. He compiled a 20-14 mark for .588 and was second in earned runs with 2.82.

Eddie Robinson Traded
CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(P)—The world champion Cleveland Indians, a spokesman announced today traded first baseman Eddie Robinson and two pitchers to Washington for first baseman Mickey Vernon and Pitcher Early Wynn.

The Senators obtained pitchers Ed Killeman and Joe Haynes in the straight player deal. Killeman was used exclusively in relief roles last season. The Indians recently obtained Haynes, 31 year old veteran, from the Chicago White Sox for rookie catcher Joe Tipton.

Vernon, 30-year-old left hander and with the Senators for six full seasons, led the American league in batting in 1946 with a mark of .353 but slumped to .265 in 1947 and 242 last season. Robinson, who will be 28 years old tomorrow has been with the Indians for the last two seasons. In 134 games last season he hit .254 but was credited with driving in 83 runs.

Wynn, 28 year old right hander, had his poorest season in 1948 with a mark of .353 but slumped to .265 in 1947 and 242 last season. Robinson, who will be 28 years old tomorrow has been with the Indians for the last two seasons. In 134 games last season he hit .254 but was credited with driving in 83 runs.

Sylvester Perkins and Bert Lytle Meet Tonight
KANSAS CITY, Dec. 14.—(P)—Bert Lytle, leading contender for the middleweight crown, and Sylvester Perkins, a top lightweight challenger, will meet tonight in a 10-round bout in Municipal Auditorium.

Both fighters are expected to weigh about 162 for the bout. Lytle fights out of Kansas City.

It will be his first bout since he returned from a Central American tour. Perkins, of Chicago, knocked out Kenny (Red) Barton at Wichita, Kas., in his last bout.

May be Lenient With Durocher

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(P)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler today described Leo Durocher as "not a man who is deliberately mean, but rather impulsive."

In that way, the commissioner gave a strong hint that today's hearing on the famed "Freddie Fitzsimmons tempering case," will result in leniency toward Leo, in contrast to suspicion in some quarters that Chandler is "gunning" for the giant manager.

Leniency might mean a fine or at worst, a 10-day suspension. The same was true of Fitzsimmons. The inquiry developed from the hiring of Fitzsimmons as coach by the Giants five weeks ago while he was still on the reserve list of the Boston Braves. This came to the attention of the commissioner who decided to delve further into the matter.

Chandler ordered Fitzsimmons, Manager Durocher, and a member of the Giants' official family to attend the hearing. Edgar Feeley, the club's treasurer, was appointed as the Giants' representative.

While Chandler declined to discuss any possible outcome of the inquiry because "I do not want to be accused of pre-judging the case," there was strong indication that some sort of punishment would be meted out to the offenders.

Fatally Shot While Hunting

CHARLESTON, Mo., Dec. 14.—(P)—Alvin Rudolph Lofton, 18, of near Dorena, this county, was fatally shot in a hunting accident near his home yesterday afternoon. The 12 gauge shotgun, which caused his death, was held by his hunting companion and close friend, James E. Wilsmuth, 19.

Coroner John Nunnelee of Mississippi county, who viewed the body and said an inquest will not be necessary, said Wilsmuth was attempting to load the gun when the accident occurred. He said Wilsmuth told him the gun was stiff in the break and when the barrel was snapped back into place the shell fired. The entire charge struck Lofton in the heart, causing instant death.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(P)—The next time a representative of an eastern college beats about organized baseball snatching college talent, he should be told impolitely and firmly to go soak his head in ice water. . . . The recent action of the eastern college athletic conference in ruling out the Vermont Northern League and other summer baseball circuits make it virtually impossible for a kid who wants to play ball to get in more than eight or nine weeks of spring competition. . . . The ECAC rule now forbids a collegian to play on "any team where there is a payment to players for salary or living expenses, either directly or indirectly. . . . That's just an invitation to a good ball player either to take himself to more liberal colleges or to sign up with a minor league club.

Broader View
The same eligibility ruling apparently applies to other sports. . . . That, of course, would rule out "Borscht circuit" summer basketball. . . . Tennis players might get away with accepting the eight weeks of on-the-cuff play permitted by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association and golfers might, as usual, accept the hospitality of "friends" during a tournament, since they're usually not playing on teams. . . . But how about a runner competing in the national championships as a member of a club team? Either the club or the A.A.U. usually pays expenses. . . . Come to think of it, we never heard that every member of the Olympic team pays his own living expenses. So that's out, too. Read the rule again.

Slight Fire Damage

Berengaria, after whom a great ship was named, was the wife of Richard the Lion-Hearted, 12th century King of England.

The Football 'Sanity Code' Is a Failure

Sports Writers All Agree The Code is 'Not Enforceable'

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(P)—The so-called "sanity code" has failed in its purpose to remove the professional taint from college football, in the opinion of the nation's sports writers. Almost to the man, writers participating in the Associated Press' year-end poll said they had failed to notice any effect of the code this year and many criticized it as "not enforceable."

The code was adopted by the National Collegiate Athletic Association last winter. Specifically, it prohibited aid to athletes that is not available to any other student and forbade colleges to offer financial inducements to boys of athletic ability. The code gave the NCAA the right to punish member schools for any violation.

It's the opinion of Bill Burke of the Salina (Kas.) Journal that the code has weakened some teams that have attempted to follow it while "others disregard the code and continue to build strong teams."

"In our section it hasn't even sent the talent scouts underground," observed Gene Sullivan of the St. Joseph (Mo.) News Press. Coaches commenting on the issue said they had noticed little effect.

Coach John Barnhill of Arkansas said the code acts as a "big stick" over some schools that might otherwise disregard the agreement. Coach Leo Meyer of Texas Christian said it would be a great thing for football if all parties adhered to the provisions.

En Mass Resignation Of UCLA Coaches

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(P)—The University of California at Los Angeles is looking for a new set of football coaches today following the en masse resignation of the entire Bruin varsity coaching staff.

Head coach Bert La Brucherie, who in his four seasons at UCLA had 23 wins and 16 losses; line coach W. P. (Dutch) Fehring, End coach Shelby Calhoun and Backfield Coach Ned Matthews turned in their unexpired contracts yesterday. La Brucherie's pact had two more years to run. This year the Bruins won three, lost seven.

The university publicist, Vic Kelley, said Athletic Director Wilbur Johns would begin immediately a search for replacements. La Brucherie said he had no immediate future plans.

What Charge Can Government Make in The Spy Case?

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—(P)—What charge can the government make against anyone in the spy case?

Perjury—lying under oath—at this moment seems to be the most serious the government may be able to make against anyone.

That statement is based on: 1. The opinion of lawyers who can't be identified further but who ought to know more about the possible charges than anyone in Washington.

2. All the information about the case now publicly known—and this has been checked with a number of people close to the case.

But the phrase—"now publicly known"—must be emphasized.

The case is still under investigation.

May Find Some Twist

And the government may find some twist in the case which would enable it to make other charges besides perjury.

The punishment for anyone found guilty of perjury after a court trial is a maximum of five years in jail and a $2,000 fine.

Briefly, the case is this:

1. Whittaker Chambers says he was part of a Soviet spy ring which rounded up secret government papers for the Russians before the war.

2. He says Alger Hiss, former State Department official, was part of the ring and took some of the papers. Hiss denied this. So did the others Chambers named as sources for the papers.

Can anyone be charged with stealing those papers? What can be done to such a person?

Nothing, say the lawyers who give that opinion on what is now publicly known of the case. Why?

Time Element

Because—and this is what the same lawyers say—under the law in this case a person who took the papers would have to be charged with the theft within three years after taking them.

But the lawyers say the last of the papers known to have been taken from the State Department were taken in 1938, or 10 years ago.

But what about a charge against anyone who was found to have those papers in his possession even at this late date?

The lawyers say they can't find any law covering a thing like that in this case.

The government's continuing investigation may unearth evidence that the spy work contin-

Wed After 'Storybook' Romance

James L. Smiley, a civil engineer, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Frances Graves, a newspaper reporter in Memphis, Tenn., were married following an unusual romance that began in Germany three years ago, waned in years of separation and revived recently after a chance reunion in Memphis. Miss Graves, a reporter for the Memphis Press-Scimitar, was a War newspaper editor and Smiley was an Army captain in Augsburg, Germany, when they met and fell in love. Separated by the army, they lost touch with each other, returned to the U. S. and left the service. But each made attempts to locate the other recently. A chance call to the United Press in Memphis by Mr. Smiley located Miss Graves, and after a new whirlwind courtship they were married. (NEA TELEPHOTO) ued a good while after 1938, when the papers were taken.

Might Make Other Choice

In the event some other charge might be made. But now there is nothing publicly known to indicate the spy ring, or a conspiracy, kept on working.

A federal grand jury in New York has been investigating reports of a pre-war Communist spy ring here for 18 months.

The term of that jury—it was set up 18 months ago to work for 18 months—ends Wednesday when a new grand jury takes over.

Reports are strong that the jury will charge, or indict, one or more people for perjury before it quits Wednesday.

Rep. Nixon, California Republican, has said "the indication is that Chambers will certainly be indicted for perjury."

Hiss and Chambers both testified under oath before the New York grand jury and before the House Un-American Activities Committee here.

What the men said in the grand jury room is not known because the jury's work is secret. But their testimony before the committee is a public record.

No Factual Evidence

Chambers said at first the "primary purpose" of the underground group here was not spying. Later he said it was.

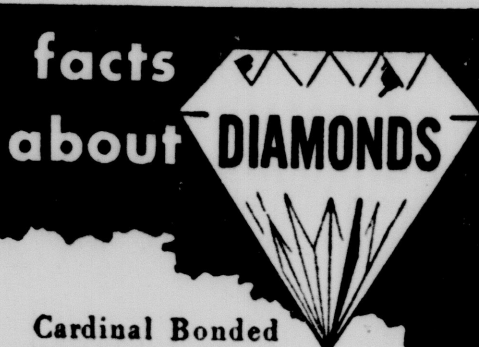

Before the committee Chambers said he had no "factual evidence" to support his charge Hiss was a Communist beyond the "fact that Hiss submitted himself for the two or three years I know him as a dedicated and disciplined Communist."

But when Hiss sued him for libel, Chambers came up with the papers to offer as evidence to try to prove that Hiss was a Communist and had taken them from the State Department.

S. D. Rosen In Knife and Fork Dinner Talk

Says Russia In Talk Of War But Not Ready For It

The story of Russia, discussed in the topic, "Economic Freedom," which was of keen interest to members, guests, and visitors, was told to them by Samuel D. Rosen in an enlightening manner at a Knife and Fork dinner meeting, in the Ambassador Room of the Bothwell hotel, Monday night.

Mr. Rosen frankly told his audience that in his opinion, in advance, there isn't going to be a war between the United States and Russia. He compared Russia with a deck of cards—they would tumble in a day. Russia is simply talking about it—they are not ready, because they do not have the facilities for war, the speaker asserted.

The speaker related history events occurring in the past, after he told his audience "we were not learning anything from history—strange as it may sound." He said, "we have no 'hind sight,' which is something essential to our survival."

"The human species can only be kept down to level of sustenance by the constant operation of the strong law of necessity, working as a check of greater power". That was the speaker's formula mentioned, following a brief discussion on population problems.

Population Doubled
"The globe has doubled in population in the past 60 or 70 years, and it will double again in the next 70 years. Back of the whole thing, I say the world is under nourished. Eighty per cent of the world haven't enough to eat, and that is probably why we have so much trouble in the world today. Only seven nations in the world are self sufficient; American is number one—Norway is seventh, and Russia is not included," he said.

Mr. Rosen said, "there is not enough sustenance to sustain a growing population—there isn't enough to go around in the world. We need a balance between existence and sustenance to eliminate war, plague, depressions, etc."

Conscious Of Power
"Our ideology is that we are calm, conscious of our power and that's the reason why we're balanced. What about the Russian ideology—Russia is boisterous because she is powerless. Thirteen men picked by Stalin run Russia. Bolshevism is from the Russian word, 'Bolshevism,' meaning majority—it only applies where there is a two party system, but in Russia there is only one party—it's only a misnomer."

Describing the head man of Russia, Iosif Vissaria Novich Djugash Villi (Joseph Stalin), the speaker said he rose practically from nowhere. He came from a little mountain village of about 40 houses. His father was a village shoe maker.

The speaker said, "once a reporter asked Stalin's mother, when she came to visit him—What do you think of your only son who is now occupying the place of Peter the Great? She replied, 'If he were not a naughty boy, he would be a bishop today.'"

What is Communism? The speaker said, "One simple formula tells the story—from each according to his needs. That is common, pure and simple, but Russia abolished it in 1936 when she changed one word in the formula, and that was—each according to his work, which changed the whole picture in Russia."

Why is there an Iron Curtain in Russia today? the speaker asked. "If the system in Russia is successful, she would open the gates, but the system does not function. The story of Russia is that fear is penetrating the whole line of people—there is no freedom of movement in Russia."

Just before a turkey dinner served at 6:30 o'clock, the Rev. H. U. Campbell gave the invocation. After dinner, the meeting was turned over to the Rev. Fr. A. J. Brunswick, president, who presided, and introduced Joseph Rosenthal, who introduced the speaker.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hobericht, former Sedalia, now living in Oakland, Calif.

WANT A BUSINESS?

If you do, here's an opportunity so unusual and so profitable it should be what you want. A quality line made with 35 years' manufacturing know-how, in an industry which has grown steadily year after year, is now setting up a complete selling organization in Sedalia and surrounding counties and is interested in having some competent man or woman receive each day the orders from our District Manager and ship those orders by parcel post from the stock which will be on hand with him at all times in Sedalia.

This will require an investment of $1,000 (One Thousand) payable when $2,500 of high quality merchandise is delivered.

Should earn for the man or woman looking after the business over $250 each week.

If you are interested and able financially to take this on, the sales director, after he has completed the selling organization, will be glad to submit complete details and facts for your consideration. Write Room 720 care The Bothwell Hotel, for interview, giving your phone number, so you may be invited to call at the Hotel Bothwell and see the line and get the facts.

Can be handled by a teacher, professional man, business man or woman or can be added to your present business. There is no selling—you just ship the orders.
